

This is to express my opposition of a petition made by the Consumer Bankers Association requesting an exemption to Indiana's Telephone Privacy List. If I was interested in what they might have to offer to me, I would voluntarily remove myself from this privacy list.

The Consumer Bankers Association is basically forcing me off of this beneficial list without regard to my personal preferences.

Please DO NOT grant this exemption on behalf of The Consumer Bankers Association.

This is obviously a marketing ploy directed at the very people who do not wish be marketed to.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
